

The JW Marriott Denver named to Condé Nast Traveler's "Gold List" for 2011

Denver, Colo. (December 20, 2010) – The JW Marriott Denver Cherry Creek is pleased to announce that it has been named to Condé Nast Traveler's "Gold List" for 2011.

The JW Marriott Denver is one of only six Colorado hotels featured and the only Denver property to make the magazine's list of the "World's 504 Best Hotels, Resorts and Cruise Lines," which is culled from reader survey responses. The magazine describes the JW Marriott Denver's staff as "always smiling and exude that classic Colorado friendliness."

In October, the JW Marriott Denver was named on Condé Nast Traveler's 2010 Readers' Choice Awards as one of the "Top Hotels in the United States." The JW Marriott Denver was ranked #45 on the list and was again the only Denver hotel to be featured.

The hotel, which is currently undergoing a $3 million renovation of its 196 luxurious guest rooms, was previously featured on Condé Nast Traveler's "Gold List" in 2007 and 2009.

Located in the heart of Denver's posh Cherry Creek North shopping district, the JW Marriott Denver features 196 opulent guest rooms and suites that blend modern décor with generous space, high-tech amenities and an exquisite 4-piece marble bathroom. The JW Marriott Denver, which recently remodeled its 8,400 square feet of meeting space and its Business Center, also offers complimentary wired and wireless internet and a state-of-the-art Fitness Center.

The hotel also features the culinary excellence of the acclaimed Second Home Kitchen + Bar and the adjacent Spa at Cherry Creek, a full-service spa and salon.
